Without any doubt the hand of the championships is board 26 of Session IV of the Transnational Teams final. In the closed room the Canadians bid and made 4♠ +1. This seemed a fairly normal result with King-Jack of spades behind the Ace and Queen.

In the WBF Voodoo Zone however all is different, especially with magician Peter Fredin at the steering wheel. He and his partner Gary Gottlieb were behind in the match so they felt they had to do something. Peter Fredin thought this hand offered an excellent opportunity for a swing. That explained his aggressive jump to 6♠.

Jim McAvoy led a heart to King and Ace. Fredin cashed his three top diamonds and the ♣A. He ruffed a club, ruffed a heart, ruffed another club, ruffed another heart and ruffed the 4th club with the ♠Q. At trick 11 declarer advanced the ♥9. East inserted his ♠J, but was endplayed. Misson accomplished, 6♠ made.
